

Image of a uniformly illuminated surface. The light falling on the sensor is reduced in a radial pattern.

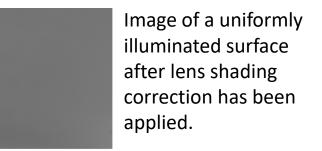

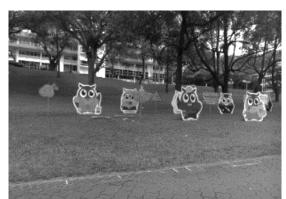

Bayer image before lens shading correction.

Lens shading mask required to correct the radial fall-off.

Bayer image after lens shading correction.